1. BERGER, Hans, born 5 October 1911 in STERNBERG bei OLMUTZ, now Czechoslovakia. He is about 5' 8" tall, of slender build, blond hair, blue eyes. He currently resides at SIGHARTING Number 84, Land Upper Austria, and is employed as storekeeper with a construction firm. He was at one time employed in the painting and decorating of ceramics, porcelain, and glass. He served in the "German Intelligence Service" during the war, according to ZIPPER. (NOTE: Former possibilities, both fm, are "Ortsgruppenleiter Hungary in touch with SD, 1943", and "Untersturmfuehrer, Sudeten-deutscher, born about 1906, Sipo and SD Einsatzkommando Yugoslavia since 1940; wife Yugoslavian". We note also that the British issued a final interrogation report, number FR-66 dated 5 April 1946, on one Major d. Bez. Hans Harold BERGER (we have a file trace reference to this report, but never have held the report), which might be identical.

2. SKODA, Franz, born about 1925, residing WIEN XII, Northenburggasse 2/III/7. He served as a watchman with the Wiener Sicherheitswache 1945 to 1952, is currently unemployed. He has allegedly had no intelligence experience.
